The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the EDB (Epigraphic Database Bari) entry for inscription EDB23766 (ICVR III 7195). The browser interface includes a menu bar (Datei, Bearbeiten, Ansicht, Chronik, Lesezeichen, Extras, Hilfe), a toolbar with various icons, and a search bar with the URL www.edb.uniba.it/epigraph/23766. Below the toolbar, there are links for 'Meistbesucht', 'Erste Schritte', 'Vorgeschlagene Sites', and 'Web Slice-Katalog'.

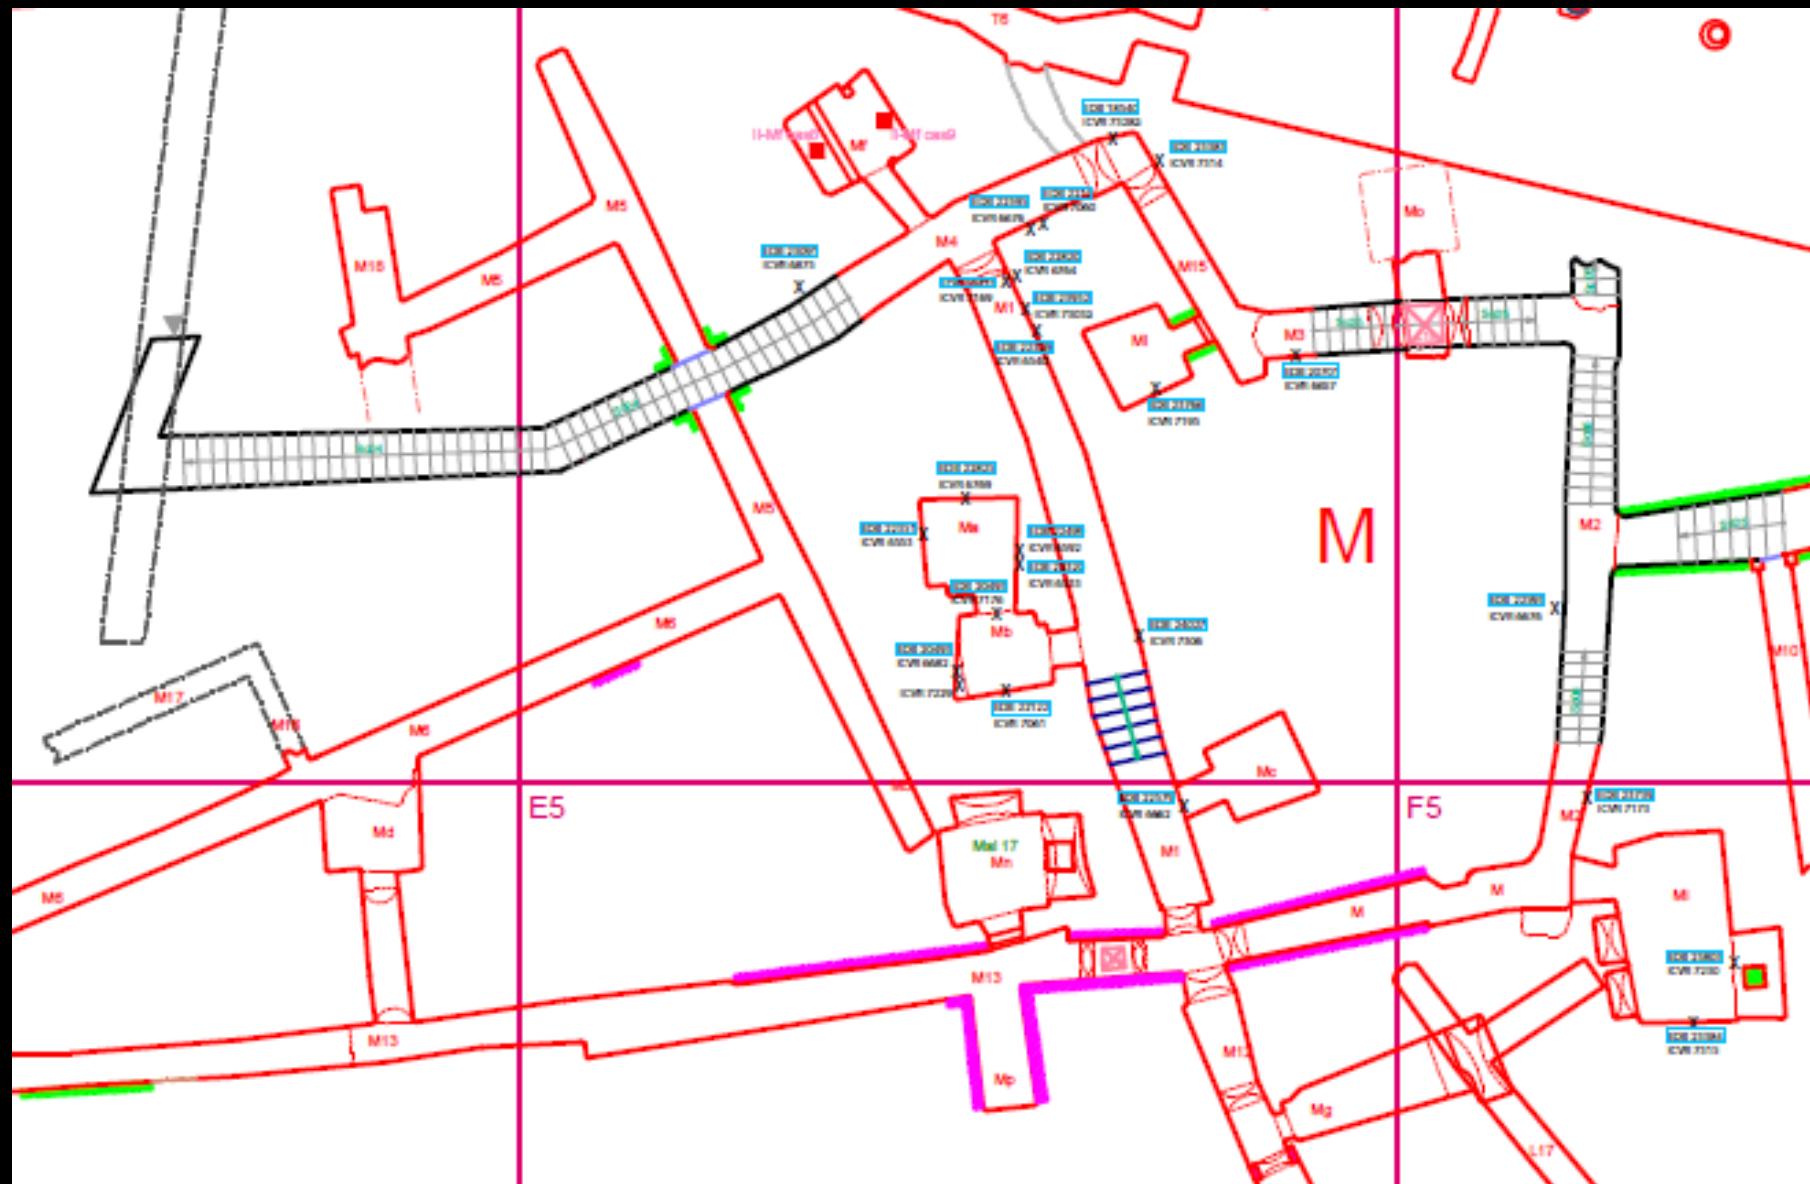

The main content area features the EDB logo and the text 'EPIGRAPHIC DATABASE BARI' and 'Inscriptions by Christians in Rome (3rd-8th cent. CE)'. The entry details for EDB23766 are as follows:

- Pertaining to Coem. Domitillae pars inferior (via Ardeatina), MI, in situ
- Titulus sepulchralis inscuptus
- Tabula marmorea 25 x 132 x ?. Letters 3,3
- Last recorded in Roma, Coem. Domitillae pars inferior, MI
- Date: 290-325
- Edition(s): ICVR III, 7195

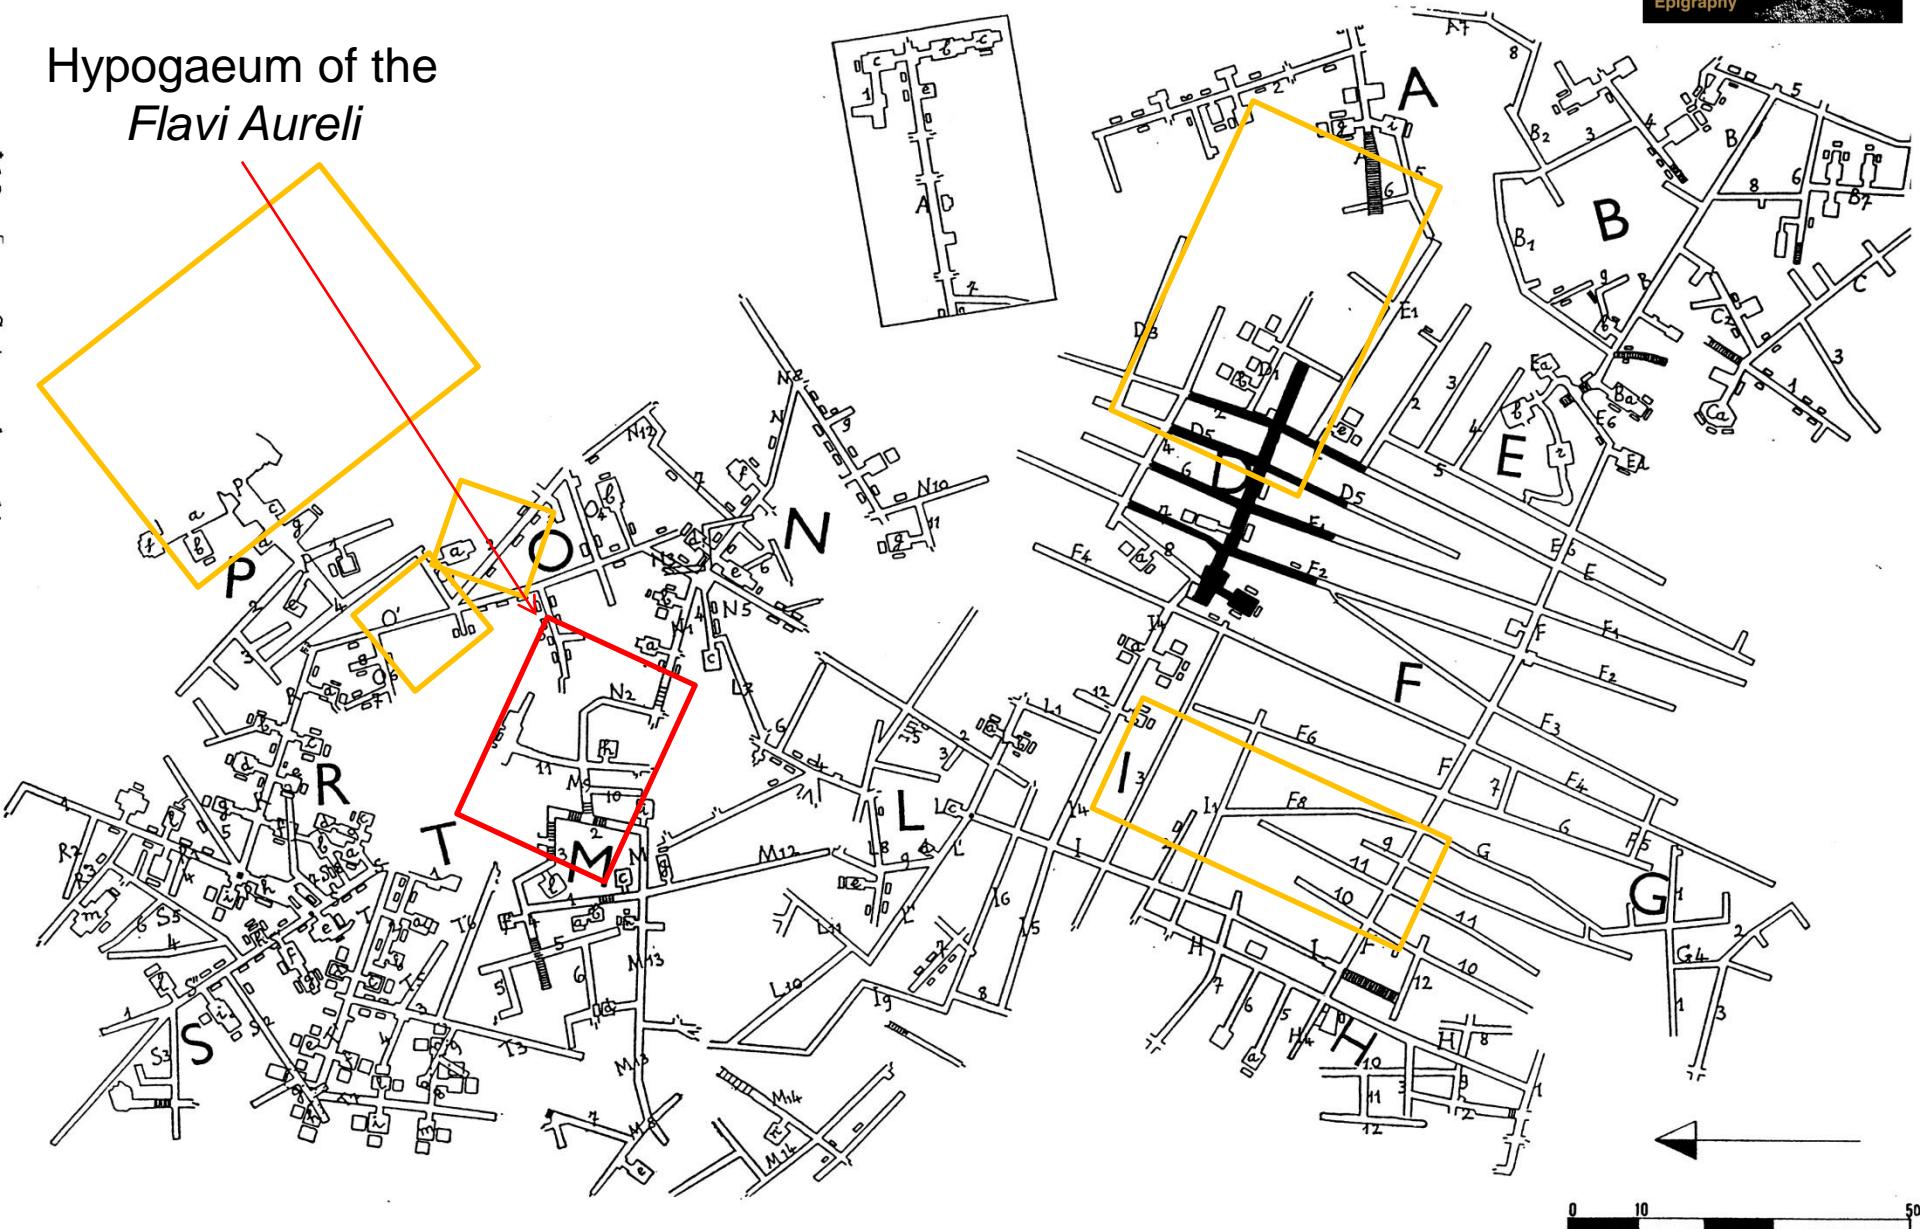

Below the text is a photograph of the inscription, which reads 'ENZYTTIC RATIC' and 'Pontificia Commissione di Archeologia'. A note below the image states 'Other image(s) available at ©Archivio della Pontificia Commissione'.

The background of the screenshot is a detailed archaeological plan of the Domitilla region, specifically region M. The plan shows various excavation units labeled with codes like T6, Mf, M4, M1, MI, M5, Ma, M9, M11, and Mh, each containing specific find numbers and descriptions. Red lines and boxes delineate different areas and structures within the site.
