Athenian judicial relations with Phaselis

5 The Council and the People decided.
Akamantis was in prytany.
[Mnasippos or Onasippos] was secretary.
[Neokleides?] was chairman. Leon proposed:

to inscribe the decree
for the Phaselites. Whatever cause of action arises at Athens
against any of the Phaselites.

the trials are to be held at Athens
before the polemarch, as for the Chians.
and nowhere else.

Of the other cases covered by judicial conventions,
the trials shall be held in accordance with the existing judicial conventions with the Phaselites.

15 The – shall be abolished.
If any of the other officials accepts
a case against any of the Phaselites [contrary to this?], if he condemns,
the condemnation shall be invalid.

If anybody contravenes
what has been decreed, he shall owe ten thousand drachmas sacred to Athena.
This decree let the secretary of the Council inscribe

20 on a stone stele and set it down on the acropolis, at the expense of the Phaselites.

S. D. Lambert - Accounts of Payments from the Treasury of Athena in 410-407? BC (IG II 3 375 and 377)

This paper treats the accounts of payments from the treasury of Athena in 410-407? BC which are inscribed on the front and back of the so-called Choiseul marble, in the Louvre in Paris (IG II 3 375 and 377). It presents a fresh text of the difficult reverse face of the inscription (377), which prints only those readings on which the three rival texts currently in circulation are in agreement, and discusses the date. It is designed to support the translations of IG II 3 375 and 377 published on AIO and includes an annotated table of the payments listed in these accounts.

S. D. Lambert - Inscribed Athenian Decrees of 229/8-198/7 BC (IG II 3 1, 1135-1255)

After exploring features of the history and methodology of Attic epigraphy, this paper surveys the corpus of 121 Athenian decrees of 229/8-198/7 BC recently published as IG II 3 1, 1135-1255 (sections I-II of IG II 3 1 fascicule 5). It reviews the decrees by category, discussing some historical aspects and proposing some improvements to the texts. It is designed to be read with the translations of these inscriptions published on AIO.
